Up to four players can interact with any open hotpot table between 6:00 PM - 3:00 AM Palia Time to begin a new game. Players will have up to 90 seconds to join the match once started. Empty tables will have a white arrow above them, while open games that are waiting to begin are marked with the current player count and a colored circle counting down the time left until auto-start. Hotpot in the Underground

Turns are played in a counter-clockwise order starting with the player first on the table. On the beginning of their turn the player must draw a card: either from the draw pile (blind draw), or the topmost of any of the other players discard piles. The player may not choose a card from their own discard pile. The player must end their turn with 8 cards, and therefore must discard one card facing up on top of their discard pile. Then the next player's turn begins.

Hotpot at the Fairgrounds

When a player holds three sets on their hand, they have won the game.

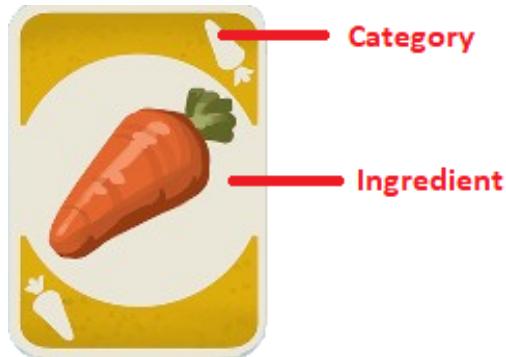

All players get table points based on all set matches on the table at the end of the game. The winning player receives bonus points for holding the winning hand.

Tips and Tricks

- If you don't have 4 players, don't worry! The game will begin after 90 seconds, even if the Hotpot table has less than 4 players. NPC's will take any spots not taken up by a player. [\[1\]](#)
- Keep an eye on what other players' are discarding! These cards will appear in front of their soup base and may help clue you in to what they are collecting. [\[1\]](#)
